

TITUS PERFORMANCE, LLC

JOIN THE NEXT GENERATION OF PERFORMANCE ENGINEERING

Titus Performance, LLC – We're a family-run, internationally respected machine shop building high-performance motorsport engines right here in America. If you're hands-on, mechanically minded, and hungry to learn how to push engines to their peak—from manual assembly to the science of performance optimization—we want to meet you.

Now Hiring – 1 to 2 Positions (Full-Time or Part-Time)

We're looking for driven individuals who are:

- Into engines, fabrication, or motorsports
- Skilled in assembly/disassembly
- Familiar with manual or CNC machining (or eager to learn)
- Down to get dirty—shop maintenance is part of the gig
- Motivated, reliable, and curious about the “why” behind the horsepower

What You'll Get:

- Competitive pay
- Benefits
- Growth potential in a specialized field
- Relocation help for the right fit
